On or about July 11, 2017, Plaintiff applied for housing at 1007 Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn, New York. This application was submitted via Housing Connect website, which is operated by the New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development, Defendant #1. On or about October 18, 2017, Plaintiff received an interview letter from IMPACCT BROOKLYN, Defendant #2. Plaintiff was instructed to bring documents to be considered for housing on October 26, 2017 at 6:00 pm. Plaintiff brought the requested documents to Defendant #2, meet with Adam James of IMPACCT BROOKLYN at that time. On or about November 8, 2017, Plaintiff received letter from IMPACCT BROOKLYN, Defendant #2, denying his application for housing because of his criminal background, this document was sent via email by Stephanie Blue. On or about November 13, 2017, Plaintiff called IMPACCT BROOKLYN to appeal the decision made by Defendant #2, speaking with Stephanie Blue. Plaintiff explained that his conviction was over 7 years old and that it was for a non-violent offense, one that would not preclude the Plaintiff from public housing. IMPACCT BROOKLYN, Defendant #2, through Stephanie Blue, instructed Plaintiff that it was the practice of Defendant #1 and Atlantic Hill, L.P. Defendant, #3 to deny anyone with criminal history housing without considering the circumstances of their arrest and/or conviction. Plaintiff explained to Defendant #2 that his housing was not determined by his incarceration, but the availability of affordable housing. Furthermore, the purpose of the federal correctional program was to allow former incarcerated individual the opportunity to re-enter their communities. Defendant #2, through Stephanie Blue, stated that the Plaintiff's application was still rejected. This was a direct contradiction of what the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development had held on April 16, 2016. At that time, Secretary of the Department of Housing and Urban Development Castro implemented the following:

A guideline that details his agency's interpretation of how the fair housing law applies to policies that exclude people with criminal records, a group that is not explicitly protected by the act but falls under it in certain circumstances. Federal officials and landlords must distinguish between arrests and convictions and cannot use an arrest to ban applicants. In the case of applicants with convictions, property owners must prove that the exclusion is justified and consider factors like the nature and severity of the crime in assessing prospective tenants before excluding someone.

V. Relief:

State what relief you are seeking if you prevail on your complaint.

1. For this Court to find that the criminal history policy or practice has a discriminatory effect for the Plaintiff and those similarly situated with criminal convictions.
2. For this Court to find that the challenged policies or practices are not necessary. That Defendants can achieve substantial and legitimate applicants without discriminatory policies or practices for those who applied for housing with criminal histories.

3. For this Court to implement less discriminatory alternative for those who applied for housing with criminal histories.
4. For this Court to determine a monetary value for the Plaintiff's pain and suffering, starting at $1,000,000.00. This is requested so that Plaintiff can be afforded a housing opportunity in New York City, New York.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the above is true and correct to the best of my knowledge

Signed this 13th day of November, 2017.

Re: 1007 Atlantic Hill L.P.
Log #: 213

Dear Applicant:

We received your application for residency in the project indicated above. Based on the guidelines for eligibility for this project, your application has been rejected for the following reason:

1. Credit History

Please note that the City of New York has established Financial Empowerment Centers that offer free counseling to help you in improving your credit. A counselor can also help you deal with your debt and debt collectors and how to save for your monthly rent. We encourage you to call 311 to make a free appointment with a counselor so that you are better prepared for future housing lotteries.

2. Rent payment history

3. Upon complete review, your income does not meet the guidelines.
See attached for income eligibility chart.

Your income: _____

4. Your income does not demonstrate a continuing need.

X 5. Criminal background check

Based on the information you present at interview, we are receipt of an Introduction Letter from the Core Service Group, the letter stated and acknowledges that you are a resident of Core Services Group Brooklyn House. Brooklyn House is a residential reentry center for federal offenders under the auspice of the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Prison or U.S. Department of Probation. The letter further confirms that you are still under the custody of the Federal government arriving on 4/12/17 and slated to be released on 2/12/18.

With this said you are not eligible for housing at 1007 Atlantic Avenue.

6. Your application and/or documentation has been found to include inconsistent information.
